Q2: What levels of Spanish do you offer?

A: We cater to various proficiency levels, from beginner to advanced, including support for AP Spanish tutoring.

Q3: Are both online and in-person classes available?

A: Yes, our program employs a combination of interactive online lessons and in-person classes held at the park or at the residences of participating families. This combination ensures a balanced and immersive learning experience.

Q4: Can students opt for private or group classes?

A: Absolutely, we provide options for both private and group classes to suit individual preferences and learning dynamics.

Q5. How are the online classes conducted?

A: Online classes are conducted through user-friendly virtual platforms, allowing students to interact with experienced instructors in real time. These classes incorporate multimedia resources, interactive activities, and engaging exercises.

Q6. What are in-person classes like?

A: In-person classes are conducted within the homes of participating families. Our qualified instructors bring a dynamic and interactive approach to these sessions, fostering an environment where children can practice speaking and listening in real-life scenarios.

Q7. How can I monitor my child's progress?

A: We provide regular progress reports that outline your child's achievements, areas of improvement, and upcoming learning goals. Additionally, parents are encouraged to communicate with instructors to stay updated on their child's progress.

One-on-one Classes and Private Groups:

Q8. How do I arrange in-person classes at my residence?

A: To organize in-person classes at your residence, you can schedule one-on-one classes or join forces with other interested families to form a small group. Our instructors will come to your home to conduct the lessons, making it a convenient and personalized learning experience.

Q9. What is the class schedule like?

A: The class schedule is designed to accommodate various time zones and family routines. You can choose from a range of available time slots that best suit your schedule.

Q10: What are the requirements for forming a private group?

A: To form a private group, families must schedule a minimum of 8 sessions, and the classes must be conducted at the residence of one of the participating families.

Q11: Can private group classes be customized to specific learning goals?

A: Absolutely, private group classes can be tailored to the specific learning objectives of the participants, enhancing the overall learning experience.

Q12. Who are the instructors?

A: Our instructors are Spanish native speakers, experienced and dedicated professionals with a strong background in teaching Spanish to children.
